Despite the nice decor and free WiFi at the restaurant, several negative reviews highlight issues with the food quality, service, and cleanliness. Customers have complained about receiving the wrong order, cold and tasteless food, and even finding blood in their chicken. These incidents have led to disappointment and dissatisfaction among patrons. However, for those who have had positive experiences, the fried chicken, chicken popcorn, and mango mojito are highlighted as standouts on the menu. Overall, the mixed reviews suggest inconsistency in both the food and service quality at this particular KFC outlet.
