Mako's Fish and Chips has become a hot topic among diners, praised for its atmosphere and extensive gluten-free menu. While some enjoyed the perfectly cooked chips and fresh grilled options, others lamented overcooked fish and inconsistent service. Despite a few positive notes on customer care, many found the prices steep for the portion sizes, leading to mixed feelings about value. The unique offerings, including gluten-free dishes, won over some patrons, who gladly made the trip for what they deemed authentic flavor. Nonetheless, the inconsistency in quality suggests that potential guests may want to proceed with caution.
