Currently, there are 62 menus and drinks available. Recent reviews for The Cook's Garden restaurant in Turramurra have been mixed. One customer was highly disappointed with their lunch, describing the pasta dish as watery and tasteless, and questioning the high price for a crumbed egg. Another visitor found the service to be subpar and vowed to never return. A loyal customer who previously enjoyed the food was shocked by the decline in quality during their latest visit and vowed not to return. However, there were also positive reviews praising the friendly staff, fantastic food, and elegant atmosphere. One customer enjoyed a delicious set menu meal with gluten-free options, while another raved about the braised lamb shank and soufflé. Overall, the restaurant seems to offer a range of dining experiences, from disappointing to delightful, making it a somewhat risky choice for diners.
