Taste of Dilli in Greater Noida has received mixed reviews from diners. While some praise the delicious veg and non-veg meals, attentive staff, and spicy dishes that do justice to their name, others have criticized the poor quality of food, with only momos receiving praise. Despite the varying opinions on the food, there is consensus on the good service and pleasant atmosphere of the restaurant. The simple ambience may not be fancy, but the North Indian cuisine, especially the Chicken Lababdar, has won over many customers. Some diners have even expressed their intention to return for more of the excellent food and service provided by Taste of Dilli.
