While some diners praise the freshness and quality of the sushi, others express disappointment in the thin fish slices and occasionally poor service. Dietary accommodations have been a strength; however, recent lapses in allergen awareness raised concerns. The lunch menu is reasonably priced, ranging from A$20 to A$40, and features a variety of tasty options. While experiences vary, the consensus suggests that attentive service and food quality can lead to a satisfying meal, though consistency remains an area for improvement.
