Diners enjoy a diverse menu featuring gluten-free options, with standout dishes like chicken parma and bushman's pie garnering rave reviews. Although some experiences noted cleanliness issues and inconsistent service, many patrons praised the friendly staff and the lively courtyard setting, complete with outdoor heating. While cocktails may leave something to be desired, the affordable prices and hearty, well-executed meals make it a go-to dining spot. Overall, Back To Bacchus continues to charm with its comforting pub fare and welcoming vibe.
