The menu of Fork and Fingers from Melbourne comprises about 147 different courses and drinks. On average you pay about A$18 for a dish / drink. Fork and Fingers is a hidden gem in Melbourne, offering a unique fusion of traditional Indian cuisine and creative dishes. While some diners found the traditional mains to be below average, others raved about the flavors and unique dining experience. The butter chicken was particularly praised, with one reviewer calling it the best they had ever tasted. The atmosphere was noted as stark, but the friendly service helped make up for it. Overall, the restaurant received mixed reviews, with some patrons planning to return for the innovative menu and attentive staff. If you're looking for traditional Indian food, you may want to look elsewhere, but if you're open to fusion cuisine, Fork and Fingers might be worth a try.
