Black Sheep Darby has garnered a range of reviews, both positive and negative. Some customers were disappointed with the odd flavors and texture of the food, particularly the stodgy crumpet and the incorrectly flavored eggs benedict. However, others praised the restaurant for its excellent service, friendly staff, and delicious offerings. Customers raved about the phenomenal platters, special house-made crumpets, and unique breakfast dishes like the roasted pumpkin special. The atmosphere at Black Sheep Darby is also highly praised, with different levels of the venue catering to those who want to dance or relax and chat. Overall, while some may recommend looking elsewhere for breakfast, many enjoyed their dining experience and plan to return for more.
