Cellar Door @ York is a restaurant located in Nashik. It is a 18-year-old restaurant that offers a peaceful atmosphere for enjoying good wine with a beautiful view of the Gangapur dam. While the food options are limited, the wines are comparable to Sula at a more affordable price. Some customers have criticized the slow service and mediocre food quality, with issues including soggy fries and lukewarm kebabs. However, others have praised the fantastic views, delicious food like tandoori mushroom and biryani, and courteous staff. The overall consensus is that York Winery is a great place for wine tasting with good food and a serene ambiance, despite some service and food quality concerns.
