The soups, especially the Sweet Corn Chicken Soup, have been highlighted for their flavorful additions. While parking may be an issue for four-wheelers, the ambience and service at Honeydew have been rated highly. The restaurant is also known for its excellent Rajasthani thali, featuring dal batti churma and flavorful chutneys. Customers have applauded the Chicken lollipop, burnt garlic fried rice, and other dishes for their taste and quality. The food is considered top-notch, especially for non-veg options like honey chilli potato. Overall, Honeydew is a recommended spot for those looking for a variety of delicious dishes, both vegetarian and non-vegetarian. Whether ordering for a special occasion or a casual meal, the restaurant offers a wide range of flavorful options worth trying.
