Reviews for Hanumanthu New Hotel Devi Annex in Mysuru. The restaurant has received mixed reviews from customers. Some have found the food to be average and not worth the time, while others have praised the pulav dishes, especially the chicken pulav with kalmi kabab. The ambience has been described as below average, with concerns about the cleanliness of the cleaning area. On the other hand, the staff are friendly and the service is quick, although some customers found the serving of food to be lacking. Parking is not available at the restaurant, but options can be found nearby. Overall, opinions on the restaurant vary, with some long-time customers enjoying the food and friendly service, while others have had less positive experiences.
