In 2009, our restaurant underwent a transformative renovation and emerged with a new name: Coco's South Bistro. Our growth allowed us to establish new locations in historic Victoria Plaza and along the bustling McArthur Highway. At Coco's South Bistro, our dedicated chefs and staff share the founders' unwavering commitment to delivering exceptional flavors without compromise. Our culinary approach blends the best of East and West, crafting a fusion gastronomy that elevates your dining experience. Our carefully curated dishes feature the finest seasonal ingredients sourced from the abundant natural bounty of Mindanao and the rest of the Philippines. Much like California cuisine, our menu emphasizes fresh, locally sourced ingredients and a fusion of diverse culinary traditions. We embrace the principles of innovative use of seasonal produce, lean proteins, and health-conscious dishes, incorporating the freshest ingredients from Mindanao and beyond to create vibrant, flavorful offerings that celebrate the region's agricultural abundance. Our cuisine reflects Davao City's rich tapestry of cultures, encompassing Filipino, Chinese, Spanish, American, and Japanese influences, among others. The result is a harmonious symphony of flavors that captures the essence of our multifaceted city, mirroring how California cuisine brings together various culinary traditions to create a unique, eclectic dining experience.
