The menu of The Bavarian from Chatswood includes 94 courses. On average the courses or drinks on the menu cost approximately A$17. You can view the categories on the menu below. The restaurant received mixed reviews from customers, with some describing it as one of the worst restaurants they have ever visited due to overcooked food and poor service, while others praised the delicious German sausages and crispy pork knuckle. The beer selection was highlighted as being great and well-priced, with some dishes being given the thumbs up. However, there were complaints about the quality of certain dishes, such as the Classic Wiener Schnitzel, which was described as the worst ever tasted. The overall atmosphere of the restaurant was deemed to be loud and noisy, especially during live music performances, but it was recommended for groups looking for a fun and lively experience. Additionally, the staff was noted to be efficient and friendly, although the cleanliness of the toilets was called into question. Overall, the restaurant was considered a good spot for a night out with friends, offering a decent selection of Bavarian food and drinks.
