A photograph showing the interior of a bar or lounge. In the foreground, there's a wooden bar counter with a corrugated metal skirt. Several high-top stools with grey upholstery are tucked under the counter. On the wall behind the bar, there's a sign that says "SIP". In the background, there's a well-lit area with shelves, possibly a kitchen or another part of the bar, and large windows with wooden frames. The lighting is warm and ambient.
