Argo's is a restaurant in Port Adelaide that has garnered mixed reviews. While some diners have experienced issues with undercooked meat and hairs in their food, others have praised the delicious and authentic Greek dishes, such as the seafood platter and the goat dish. The portions are generous and reasonably priced, making it a popular spot for families and groups. The service has been noted as a bit slow and inconsistent, but the warm and unpretentious atmosphere, along with live Greek music, adds to the overall experience.
